

Drug Enforcement Administration: Drug Abuse Prevention Service Award

The Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) established the DEA Community Service Award in 1981 to recognize Law Enforcement Explorer posts that exhibit exemplary community service. In 1984, this award was modified to recognize the efforts of posts that conduct drug abuse prevention programs.

The Award

The DEA Drug Abuse Prevention Service Award consists of an engraved plaque and a $1,000 award, which will be presented by the administrator of the DEA or his/her official representative. The award will be given to qualified Law Enforcement Explorer posts in recognition of "an act or actions representing a contribution of outstanding service in drug abuse prevention."

Nomination Procedure

3. Secure the Learning for Life certification from your local council office.
